Colorado Aviation Business Association and Signature Flight Support Present Donation to Humane Society for Fire Relief

Denver, CO – July 23, 2013 – The Colorado Aviation Business Association (CABA) and Signature Flight Support announce their donation of $2,000 to the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region in Colorado Springs. The funds will support the Humane Society's fire relief efforts in the Colorado Springs area.

Marsha Wayman, Grants and Corporate Relations Manager, accepted the check on behalf of the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region. "We are very honored and pleased to accept this donation and we sincerely thank Signature, CABA, and everyone who participated from the bottom of our hearts," said Ms. Wayman.

CABA and Signature held their 7th Annual Charity Golf Tournament on July 10 at the Inverness Golf Club, Englewood, CO. Proceeds of the tournament are normally used to benefit the Centennial Airport Foundation and the CABA Scholarship Fund; the level of success of this year's tournament enabled the additional donation to the Humane Society.

Craig Teasdale, General Manager of Signature's Centennial and Denver International Airport facilities and Chairman of the Tournament Committee, presented the check to Ms. Wayman at a luncheon following the tournament. "We are so very happy and proud to be able to donate these funds to the Humane Society for their outstanding efforts to rescue animals impacted by the fires in the Colorado Springs area, and we sincerely thank all of our sponsors and golfers who made this possible," he said.

The Centennial Airport Foundation, established in 2007, provides funding to educate the public about aviation and aeronautics. The CABA Scholarship Fund, established in 2011, supports selected students in their pursuit of a career in aviation. All aviation-related career tracks are considered eligible including, but not limited to: pilot, aircraft maintenance, airport operations, and management. The Fund awarded more than $22,000 in scholarships in 2012.
